Docket No. C-14-79

FDA Docket No. FDA-2013-H-1300

Decision No. CR3057

Date: January 2, 2014

INITIAL DECISION AND DEFAULT JUDGMENT

The Center for Tobacco Products (CTP) initiated the above-captioned matter when it filed an Administrative Complaint for Civil Money Penalties (Complaint) with the Departmental Appeals Board, Civil Remedies Division (CRD) and the Food and Drug Administration's (FDA) Division of Dockets Management. CTP seeks to impose civil money penalties under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (Act) and the Act's implementing regulations.

The Complaint alleges the following facts. Respondent owns an establishment that sells tobacco products and is located at 2551 North Emerson Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana 46218. Complaint ¶ 3. CTP conducted three inspections of the establishment. Complaint ¶ 9. During an inspection, an FDA-commissioned inspector observed the following at Respondent's establishment:

[A] person younger than 18 years of age was able to purchase a package of Grizzly Long Cut Wintergreen smokeless tobacco on November 8, 2012, at approximately 8:37 PM; and . . . the minor's identification was not verified before the sale, as detailed above, on November 8, 2012, at approximately 8:37 PM.

Complaint ¶ 10.

On December 6, 2012, CTP issued a warning letter to Respondent specifying the violations that the inspector observed. The letter warned Respondent that if it failed to correct the violations, civil money penalties could be imposed on it and that it was Respondent's responsibility to ensure compliance with the law. Complaint ¶ 10.

Souleymane Ibrahim, Respondent's General Manager, responded to the warning letter on Respondent's behalf in an undated letter that CTP received on January 9, 2013. "Mr. Ibrahim stated that Respondent trained all employees to ID anyone who looks younger than 30 years old and to check [a] proper form of identification." Complaint ¶ 11.

[A] person younger than 18 years of age was able to purchase a package of Marlboro cigarettes on April 21, 2013, at approximately 7:27 PM; and . . . the minor's identification was not verified before the sale, as detailed above, on April 21, 2013, at approximately 7:27 PM.

Complaint ¶ 1.

In compliance with 21 C.F.R. §§ 17.5 and 17.7, CTP served Respondent with the Complaint on November 5, 2013, via United Parcel Service. CTP charged Respondent with violating 21 C.F.R. § 1140.14(a) (sale of tobacco products to a minor) and 21 C.F.R. § 1140.14(b)(1) (failure to verify the age of a person purchasing tobacco products by means of photographic identification containing the bearer's date of birth). Complaint ¶¶ 1, 10. CTP asked the CRD to impose a $500 civil money penalty based on three alleged violations of the regulations in a 24-month period. Complaint ¶ 13.

The Complaint provided detailed instructions related to filing an answer and requesting an extension of time to file an answer. Complaint ¶¶ 14-18, 20-22. The Complaint stated that failure to file an answer could result in the imposition of a civil money penalty against Respondent. Complaint ¶ 19. Further, after CTP filed the Complaint, CRD sent Respondent an Initial Order informing Respondent of the requirement to file an answer to avoid a default judgment. CRD sent a form answer along with the Initial Order that Respondent could fill out and file with CRD. Respondent neither filed an answer nor requested an extension of time within the 30-day time period prescribed in 21 C.F.R. § 17.9.

If a respondent does not file an answer within 30 days of a properly served complaint, the regulations provide that:

[T]he presiding officer shall assume the facts alleged in the complaint to be true, and, if such facts establish liability under the relevant statute, the presiding officer shall issue an initial decision within 30 days of the time the answer was due, imposing:

- (1) The maximum amount of penalties provided for by law for the violations alleged; or
- (2) The amount asked for in the complaint, whichever amount is smaller.

21 C.F.R. § 17.11(a). Further, a failure to file a timely answer means that “the respondent waives any right to a hearing and to contest the amount of the penalties and assessments” imposed in the initial decision. 21 C.F.R. § 17.11(b).

Accepting the facts alleged in the Complaint as true, I find that those facts establish Respondent’s liability under the Act. See 21 U.S.C. §§ 333(f)(9), 387c(a)(7)(B), 387f(d); 21 C.F.R. §§ 1140.1(b), 1140.14. I also find that CTP’s request to impose a $500 civil money penalty is permissible. See 21 C.F.R. § 17.2.

Therefore, Respondent is directed to pay a civil money penalty in the amount of $500. This initial decision becomes final and binding upon both parties 30 days after the date of its issuance. 21 C.F.R. § 17.11(b).

It is so ordered.
