

NEWBORN SCREENING FOR SEVERE COMBINED IMMUNODEFICIENCY (SCID): STATE STATUS

SACHDNC Meeting

January 27, 2011

Jelili Ojodu, MPH

Speakers

- Carla Cuthbert PhD, FCCMG, FACMG
 - Chief, Newborn Screening and Molecular Biology Branch And the Newborn Screening Quality Assurance Program, Division of Laboratory Sciences, NCEH, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
- Laboratory status update
- Christine Seroogy, MD
 - Associate Professor, University of Wisconsin
- Follow-Up and Treatment Update

Speakers

- Marcia Boyle
 - President and Founder, Immune Deficiency Foundation
- Advocacy Activities/ Educational Material Development
- Michael S. Watson, MS, PhD, FACMG
 - Executive Director, American College of Medical Genetics
- NBSTRN Update

Meeting Update

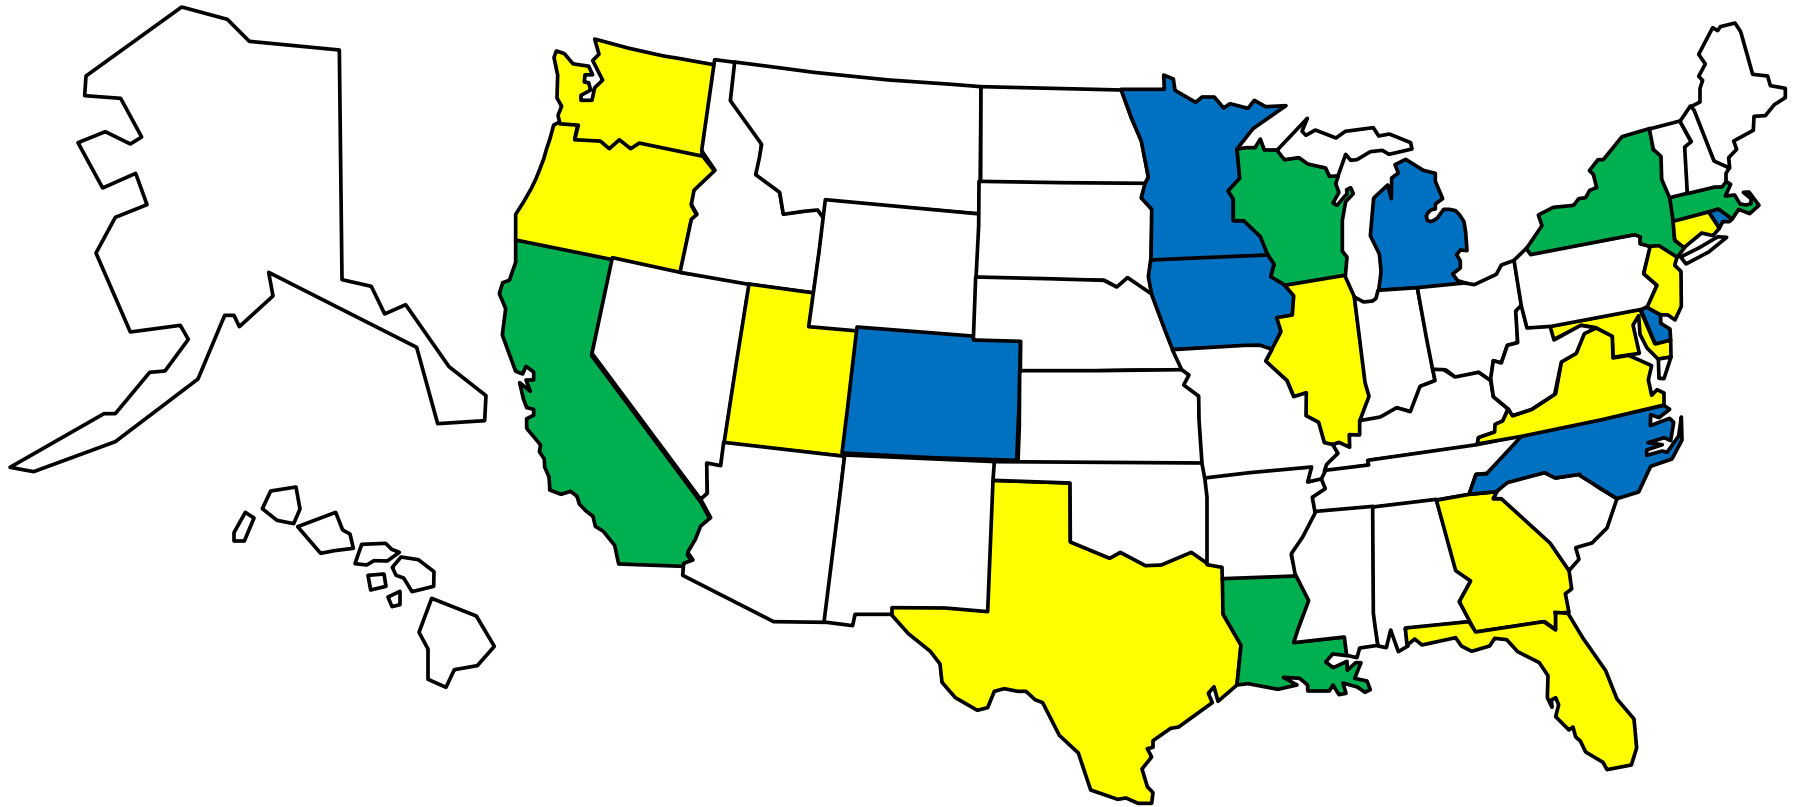

- Newborn Screening for Severe Combined Immunodeficiency (SCID): Implementation, Challenges and Successes Meeting
 - Sponsored by APHL, NNSGRC, CDC and HRSA
 - October 27-29, 2010 (Atlanta, GA)
 - 196 participants from 48 states and three countries
 - Archived videos and slide presentations available at www.aphl.org

Newborn Screening Fellowship

- Ronald H. Laessig Memorial Newborn Screening Fellowship
- Patrice K. Held, Ph.D., FACMG
 - Wisconsin State laboratory of Hygiene, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- Supported by the Jeffrey Modell Foundation, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and APHL

States and territories currently screening for SCID
January 2011

States and territories currently screening for SCID
(as of January 2011)

States where NBS advisory committees have voted to recommend SCID, screening pending

States considering SCID testing

Thanks

Jelili Ojodu

jelili.ojodu@aphl.org

240.485.2772